The Art of Folding and Cutting

2026年5月21日，APEC文化绘卷的第一站，从剪纸艺术的灵动之美中徐徐展开。
同学们亲手体验了这项传承千年的非物质文化遗产——一把剪刀，一张红纸，便能剪出花鸟鱼虫，裁出人间百态。每一道剪痕都藏着温暖的祝福，每一幅作品都是独一无二的故事。传统与现代在指尖悄然交汇，大家由衷地感受到中华文化跨越时空的独特魅力。

On May 21st, our cultural journey began with one of China's most iconic art forms— paper cutting.
Members picked up scissors and red paper, and within moments, flowers, birds, and intricate patterns came to life in their hands. This intangible cultural heritage, passed down for over a thousand years, carries blessings and endless creativity. For many, it was their first time experiencing this ancient craft and the smiles in the room said it all.

传统之彩：孟加拉民俗工艺

Colors of Tradition: Bengali Folk Crafts

5月22日，校园里迎来了孟加拉国最鲜艳的色彩和最欢快的节奏。

On May 22nd, Bangladesh painted our campus with its most vibrant colors and rhythms. Members handcrafted three traditional items: Baisakhi Masks used during the Bengali New Year, Nokshi Fans decorated with intricate local patterns, and Dugdugis — simple yet joyful percussion instruments. The workshop was filled with laughter, creativity, and genuine cultural exchange. By the end of the evening, everyone had taken home not just a handmade craft, but a piece of Bangladesh in their hearts.

From the strategy of La Marie to the skill of Lbiyy marbles, from the energy of Lastik jump rope to the calm of sharing mint tea, every game told a story of Moroccan life. Members competed, laughed, and connected in ways that only play can bring — proving that culture needs no translation.

色彩与传承：印尼文化工作坊
Warna & Warisan: Indonesian Workshop

5月24日，印度尼西亚的色彩与创意，让我们同时享受到视觉和手作的双重乐趣。
工作坊把传统蜡染艺术和童年游戏融合在一起，同学们亲手制作了充满印尼风情的蜡染手提袋，每个人画出的图案都是独一无二的。接着，大家又体验了印尼经典传统游戏bola bekel——道具虽然简单，笑声却格外纯粹，让所有人都找回了童年的感觉。这一晚，印尼文化用最朴实的方式告诉我们：艺术，原来可以是最简单的快乐。

On May 24th, Indonesia brought us a feast of color, creativity, and joy.
The workshop blended two beautiful things: the ancient art of batik and the innocent fun of childhood games. Members designed their own batik-inspired tote bags, each one a unique work of art. Then came bola bekel — a classic Indonesian game that had everyone laughing and competing with full hearts. It was a reminder that the most beautiful cultural experiences are the ones that make you feel like a child again.
